Subject: Formal Complaint, Vote of No Confidence, and Demand for the Immediate Removal of the Chairman of NIDCOM, Hon. Abike Dabiri-Erewa, for Amplifying Hate Speech and Bigotry

Your Excellencies,

We, the undersigned heads of all Igbo unions and associations in the United Kingdom and the wider diaspora, under the umbrella of Ogbako Ndi Igbo UK, write to express our utmost condemnation and profound disgust at the recent, unequivocally bigoted actions of the Chairman of the Nigerians in Diaspora Commission (NIDCOM), Hon. Abike Dabiri-Erewa.

It has been incontrovertibly established that the Chairman actively amplified and endorsed a virulently hateful post to the global community using her official platform and the X social media platform. The post in question, authored by one Wale Akere, did not merely contain a casual slur; it launched a dehumanising tirade against citizens of South-Eastern extraction, referring to Igbos as “monkeys,” “children of gorillas,” and “bastards.” By choosing to repost this content, Hon. Dabiri-Erewa did not just overlook bigotry, she actively participated in it, sanctioned it, and broadcasted this hate speech from her official platform to a national audience.

Ogbako Ndi Igbo Uk, Executive Officers:

Chief Charles Ukandu – President, Dr Daisy Nwaozuzu– Vice President, Barrister Kenneth Udeoka – Secretary General, Mr Ifeanyi Madu - Vice Secretary General, Mr. Phenasus Ibe – Financial Secretary, Engr. Moses Osunwoke – Treasurer, Engr. Tony Ekpechue– PRO, Mr. Chidiebere Onuorah- Provost, Engr. Stanley Amadi – Social and Welfare Officer

For a public official whose statutory mandate is to cater to and unite all Nigerians in the diaspora, irrespective of ethnicity, this action constitutes a gross and unforgivable dereliction of duty. It transforms her office from a beacon of inclusion into a platform for ethnic vitriol. This incident is, regrettably, not an isolated misstep but part of a persistent pattern of disregard and discredit directed by the Chairman towards one of Nigeria's largest and most globally impactful ethnic groups.

Therefore, Ogbako Ndi Igbo UK hereby formally:

Dissociates itself completely from Hon. Abike Dabiri-Erewa and the office she disgracefully occupies.

Declares a vote of no confidence in her leadership, which we find to be irredeemably compromised and divisive.

Demands her immediate removal from the office of Chairman of NIDCOM.

Consequently, we state unequivocally that until Hon. Dabiri-Erewa is removed from office, Ndi Igbo in the UK and the wider diaspora will cease all participation in any activity, event, or initiative under the auspices of NIDCOM or her leadership. We cannot and will not engage with an institution led by an individual who endorses calls for our dehumanisation.

We call on His Excellency, President Bola Ahmed Tinubu, to act decisively in the interest of national unity, social cohesion, and the fundamental dignity of every Nigerian citizen by removing her from this position of authority with immediate effect.

We further call on the Nigerian High Commission in the United Kingdom to fulfil its duty to foster unity and inclusion by publicly condemning this hate speech, alienating itself from her conduct, and supporting actions that heal rather than divide.

Ndi Igbo, an ethnic nation of over fifty million people, will no longer tolerate being the target of state-sanctioned bigotry. We have a voice, and we stand firm in our demand for respect, dignity, and the immediate rectification of this grievous error.

We call on all patriotic Nigerians, civil society organisations, and the international community to condemn this reprehensible act in the strongest possible terms.

We await your urgent and decisive action.

Respectfully Yours,

For and on behalf of Ogbako Ndi Igbo UK and all Affiliate Unions in the Diaspora:
